<sup>1</sup> In their proposed Order, Plaintiffs also ask the Court to order “that this Judgment may be immediately registered in any Court of competent jurisdiction regardless of whether the time for appeal has expired.” (Pls.’ Mot., Dkt. No. 8 at ECF No. 2.) However, registration of a judgment before the time for appeal has expired requires a showing of “good cause.” See 28 U.S.C. § 1963 (“A judgment in an action for the recovery of money or property entered in any . . . district court . . . may be registered by filing a certified copy of the judgment in any other district . . . when the judgment has become final by appeal or expiration of the time for appeal or when ordered by the court that entered the judgment for good cause shown . . . .”); see also Great Am. Ins. Co. v. Stephens, No. 04-3642, 2006 WL 2349991, at *2 (E.D. Pa. Aug. 11, 2006) (permitting Plaintiff to register judgment “either an appeal has been filed or the time for filing an appeal has expired” only upon a showing of “good cause”). Plaintiffs’ have not made the requisite showing.
